STIFEL ACCELERATES EUROPEAN FIXED INCOME EXPANSION WITH KEY SENIOR HIRES

ST. LOUIS & LONDON, November 10, 2026 – Stifel Financial Corp. (NYSE: SF) ("Stifel") today announced the appointments of Alex Calder, Jerrard Zive, and Kamran Khan to senior roles within its Fixed Income Capital Markets platform. Based in London, the three industry veterans bring more than 60 years of combined experience across European credit markets, further enhancing Stifel's capabilities in leveraged finance, high yield, institutional sales and trading, and client coverage across the region.

"European credit remains a key area of opportunity for our Fixed Income platform," said David Rubulotta, Global Co-Head of Fixed Income Capital Markets at Stifel. "Alex, Jerrard, and Kamran bring significant experience and extensive networks across the leveraged finance and credit markets. Their additions reflect the strong momentum of our business and enhance our ability to best serve clients."

These appointments follow the recent hirings of Conor Daly and Jim Franz, Stifel's Co-Heads of Leveraged Finance Sales in Europe, and reinforce the firm's commitment to expanding its European credit franchise and strengthening its presence across key institutional markets.

Alex Calder joins Stifel with more than two decades of experience in European credit markets, spanning high yield bonds, leveraged loans, distressed debt, special situations, and financial institutions. He focuses on serving a diverse institutional client base, including UK real money investors, CLO managers, hedge funds, and distressed-focused accounts. Prior to joining Stifel, Mr. Calder held positions at Jefferies, Seaport Global Securities and BGC Aurel, following earlier experience on the buy side at Aberdeen Asset Management.

Over the last 25 years, Jerrard Zive has built and expanded institutional fixed income franchises across leading global investment banks and specialized credit platforms. Throughout his career, he has developed strategic institutional relationships and driven investor distribution across investment grade, leveraged finance, high yield, event-driven, distressed, securitized, and structured credit markets. His background includes senior leadership roles at Mesirow Financial Inc., Seaport Global Securities, SC Lowy, Nomura, and Bank of America Merrill Lynch, where he led structured and securitized credit sales initiatives across the EMEA region.

Kamran Khan brings extensive experience in European credit markets, with a particular focus on high yield new issuance and secondary trading. He has established deep relationships across a broad institutional client base, including real money investors and hedge funds. Before joining Stifel, Mr. Khan spent 16 years at Cantor Fitzgerald, where he was instrumental in developing and maintaining key client relationships throughout the region.
